Hideout Campground Fire

Glenwood Springs, Colo – At 12:06 a.m. on October 7, 2019, Glenwood Springs Fire Department was called to an RV fire at the Hideout Campground.

Upon arrival firefighters found heavy smoke from a fire in an exterior wall and beneath the RV. Firefighters immediately removed an occupant from the RV and began overhaul operations. Two fire engines, 1 ambulance, a command vehicle, and 8 firefighters responded to this incident.

Two individuals were transported to Valley View Hospital for smoke inhalation and burns.

The fire was investigated by members of the Garfield County Fire Investigation team. The fire was unintentional in nature with a probable cause of improperly discarded smoking material.
